

BREAKING

Atlanta issues boil water advisory amid widespread outages

Gift The AJC  Log Out

Food & Drink

Dining

Dining Guides

Vegan & Vegetarian Guide

Openings & Closings

FOOD & DINING

D'bo's Daiquiris, Wings and Seafood opens in downtown Atlanta

Brand is owned and operated by a Morehouse graduate

Credit: Courtesy of D'bo's Daiquiris

D'bo's Daiquiris, Wings and Seafood opened in downtown Atlanta with a variety of wings, seafood and daiquiri flavors.

By Olivia Wakim

May 17, 2024

D'bo's Daiquiris, Wings and Seafood has opened its first Atlanta location.

Located at 349 Decatur St. SE in the Pencil Factory Flats, the eatery, which originated in Memphis, Tennessee, offers whole and boneless chicken wings with flavors like D'bo's honey hot, D'bo's hot and D'bo's seasoned, which is a dry rub like lemon pepper, plus other menu items including crab legs, lobster, shrimp, catfish, burgers, coleslaw, fried okra and corn on the cob.

Advertisement

	  Dinosaur Bone Ring in Sterling Silver and 14K Gold Shop Now   Camilla 1.50 to Diamond Band Shop Now
--	---

There are also plant-based options like a vegetarian burger and cauliflower wings. Weekend brunch offers dishes like catfish and grits, chicken and waffles and French toast.

The 3,700-square-foot space will have a "chill and relaxed" sports bar feel with two bars, several TVs and enough seating for 120 people, D'bo's owner Julian Boyd told The Atlanta Journal-Constitution. Outdoor seating will be available by midsummer.

The restaurant also serves frozen daiquiris like D'Beaux, a strawberry flavor; Blue Suede Shoes, a blue raspberry flavor; and Just Peachy, a peach flavor. Daiquiris can be mixed and matched.

Explore Metro Atlanta restaurant openings and closings

Credit: Courtesy of D'bo's Daiquiris

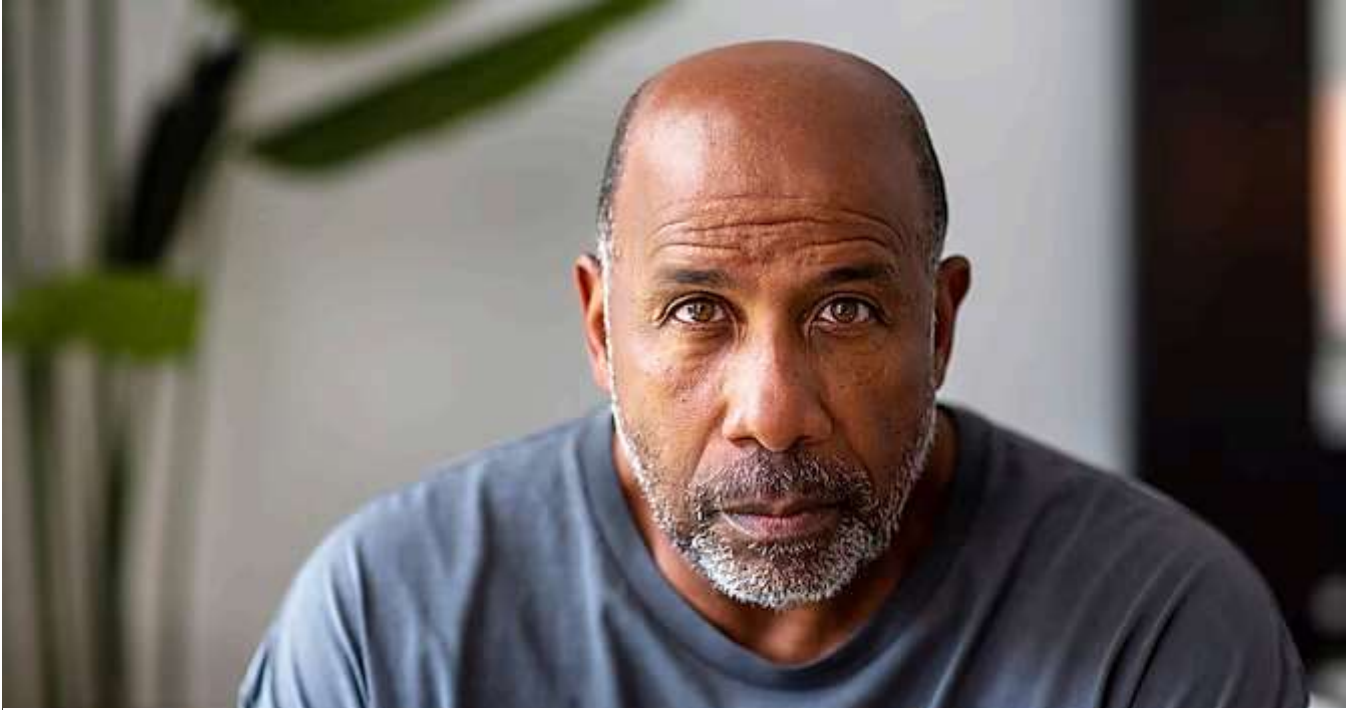

D'bo's Daiquiris, Wings and Seafood opened in downtown Atlanta with a variety of wings, seafood and daiquiri flavors.

Sign up for the latest on metro ATL's food and dining community

By signing up, I agree to the Privacy Policy and Visitor Agreement.

SIGN UP

Boyd's parents, David and Leticia Boyd, founded D'bo's in Memphis in August 1990 as a food truck, and opened their first brick-and-mortar a year later. They spent about a year experimenting with different sauces and seasonings.

By Kaiser Permanente

ADVERTISER CONTENT

This is one of the most common conditions impacting mental health

After Boyd graduated from Morehouse College, he worked in the corporate world for several years before earning his master's degree in business at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. He returned to help out with the family business, and they are now opening franchised locations in Florida and Georgia. D'bo's Wings previously had a location in Riverdale, Georgia, from 2001 to 2006.

Oscar Davis III and Benny Bryant are the Atlanta franchise partners.

D'bo's will hold a ribbon-cutting ceremony on Saturday, June 1, from 1-5 p.m. with daiquiris, Ben and Jerry's ice cream and giveaways.

Opening hours are 11 a.m.-10 p.m. Monday, 11 a.m.-midnight Tuesday-Thursday, 11 a.m.-2 a.m. Friday-Saturday and 9 a.m.-10 p.m. on Sunday.

Explore Intown Atlanta dining news

Explore

The ultimate guide to vegan and vegetarian dining in metro Atlanta

Sign up for the AJC Food and Dining Newsletter

Advertisement

Read more stories like this by liking Atlanta Restaurant Scene on Facebook, following @ATLDiningNews on X and @ajcdining on Instagram.

About the Author

Olivia Wakim

Olivia Wakim is a digital content producer on the food and dining team. She joined the AJC as an intern in 2023 after graduating from the University of Georgia with a journalism degree. While in school, she reported for The Red & Black, Grady Newsource and the Marietta Daily Journal.

Editors' Picks